HERE WE ARE, CLEAR THE WAY.

WE ARE LOADED FOR BEAR.

DEAR FRIENDS:--We have been silent for several days, which brought a premature smile to the faces of our competitors. But they will know this morning that there was mischief brewing all the time. They will read over this list of prices and then go out and have a few disastrous rounds with the despair that will hug them closer and blacker than a shadow.

But friends their grief will be your joy. They will be sad unto jaundice because they know you will read of the bargains that are offered here--and that will be the end of their few-sales-and big-profits jig.

Here is What WE Can do For You.

600 Pairs Ladies' Dongola Button shoes in Opera and Common Sense. Our former price has been $3.00; we are going to sell them at $2.00. Other dealers here can't buy them at what we are selling them for. If you don't get a pair you will regret it.

500 Pairs Ladies' Dongola Button shoe at $1.35; our price was $2.25. They will be sold at this great sale at the above price and they are dandies. Our competitors may howl at such a slaughter but we have the goods and are going to sell if prices will do it.

300 Men's Real Congress shoes all solid and are worth $2.00; considering the great advance in prices we are going to run them out at $1.35.

We have 150 Pairs Men's Calf Congress shoes hand welt and they are daisies and you can't approach them at near the price. We are going to sell at $2.50. Just think, of a Men's hand sewed shoe being sold at such a price.

If this does not satisfy you that we UNDERSELL any other house in the business come to our store and see the thousand other startling evidences that rest upon the shelves. The tariff may affect small concerns, but it stands out of the way for such a business as we do. Tariff or no tariff, we break the record every day in the matter of getting up bargains for our patrons.

FERRISS & LAPHAM,
148 E. Main st., Decatur, Ill.

MATTHEWS.
H. L. Matthews, of the Leob & Matthews company, is making an effort to use the police regulations and machinery of justice to work out his own private spite. A few days ago the fact of a racket between one of Mr. Matthews' non-union moulders and a railroad was mentioned. The railroad yielded and the moulder jumping on him, was giving him a thumping, when the proceedings were interrupted by the withdrawal of the railroad from the fray. His name was Kelso, and after the row, Matthews got out a warrant for him, charging assault on the moulder, whose name is Thomas Talt. The police have had the warrant since, but didn't see Kelso until yesterday, when Officer Baylor arrested him and took him before Justice Hammer. Kelso pleaded guilty, paid his fine of $5 and costs and was discharged. When Mr. Matthews heard of it he flew into a great rage, because he had not been notified to be present at the hearing. He intimated that the police had not done their duty, and got out another warrant charging Kelso with using profane language and disorderly conduct. That was served late in the afternoon, and Kelso was taken before Justice Hammer again. Matthews was there that time. Kelso signed his willingness to plead guilty, and thus have the matter over with. That didn't suit Matthews, though. He had not got enough revenge, or whatever he was wanted out of the case, and he wanted the case continued. The square informed him that the only thing to do was to let the man plead guilty, and that was done. Then Kelso was fined again, the fine and costs amounting to $5.70.

Now Mr. Matthews announced his intention of getting out a state warrant for the victim. The other actions were city cases. He instructed the officer to hold Kelso, or to go and lock him up, and keep him until the other warrant could be got out. The officer objected, however, refused to act with no more authority than Matthews instructions, and so Kelso was released, though threats were made that he had not heard the last of it.

It should be stated that Kelso, a day or two before, when he heard that the warrant was out for him, went to see Matthews, and acknowledging that he had done wrong, offered to do what was right, and let the Matthews men alone if the proceeding against him was stopped. Of course that kind of thing didn't suit Mr. Matthews.

The Weather.
For several days the weather has been threatening. It has looked as if the winter was upon us. The cold wind and leaden colored clouds have made us think of warm fires, and of those the best are made with Riverton coal. Order of E. L. Martin, 628 North Main, telephone 433.

Confirmed.
The favorable impression produced on the first appearance of the agreeable liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs a few years ago has been more than confirmed by the pleasant experience of all who have used it, and the success of the proprietors and manufacturers of the California Fig Syrup company.

I suffered for two weeks with neuralgia of the face, and procured immediate relief by using Salvation Oil. Mrs. W. C. BOLD, 148 N. Carey St., Baltimore, Md.

A Chicago lover of his best girl he could tell what she was thinking of. He thought she was thinking of him, but he wasn't; it was about Dr. J. C. B. Syrup, which he just cured her of a dreadful cough.

He Told Kemp's Balsam
I yell "Take Kemp's Balsam, the best cough cure." I always do when I hear a man cough, and I can't help it. It saved me and it will cure you. I was threatened with pneumonia last winter and it broke it up. It helps the children out when their throats are sore, cures their coughs, and tastes so good. The first dose helps you. So writes A. R. Arnold, engineer on the West Shore railway, at Canajoharie, N. Y.

No Lawyer.
physician, merchant, or in fact any business office, is complete without the business man's friend--the city directory. The new one for 1891 will be the greatest and best of all.

Bicycles to Rent.
By the day or hour, tandem bicycles, ladies' bicycles, rent's and ladies' wheels of all kinds at Bicycle headquarters, Library block.

W. C. Outten and Harry Midkiff returned yesterday morning from Vernon, Ind., where they went a few days ago to see James Cantrell, the farmer who left the neighborhood of Harrison about a month ago. Cantrell went between two days and left a great many debts. Among others was a client of W. C. Outten, who had loaned Cantrell money on notes and a chattel mortgage. The whole amount of his indebtedness in that one instance was considerably above $1,000. He took a lot of property that was covered by a mortgage.

Wednesday morning Messrs. Outten and Midkiff called on Cantrell in Jennings county, Ind. He was not expecting them, and was almost speechless. He was not dressed to receive company, and was much embarrassed by their appearance. Mr. Outten told him they had come on business, and informed Cantrell that he could talk about it there, or come back to Illinois in the custody of an officer, to talk the matter over here. Cantrell explained that his wife's health was poor in Illinois, he was not making much, any way, and then he thought that mortgage had expired. Mr. Outten cut all that off in the courteous way in which he always speaks, and then Cantrell settled by giving a bill of sale for all his property in Illinois and a mortgage under the laws of Illinois to greatly more than secure all that he owed Mr. Outten. Even the expenses of the trip over there was secured by the mortgage. Cantrell said, with a sigh, that none of his folks had ever been in that kind of trouble before, and if he had known that that mortgage had not expired he would not have left Illinois.

Four Lincoln Local.
The members of St. Patrick's church began a fair Wednesday night at Gillett's hall, and will continue it for three nights. There are a number of fine booths where fancy articles are displayed for sale. A young cow will be given away on Saturday night, and the most popular young lady and gentleman will be voted on during the fair. The asylum band and orchestra furnishes music.

Mrs. Virginia Munger, wife of John Munger, of Chillicothe, and youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Miller, died at the home of her parents, in Lincoln Wednesday afternoon. Her death was of long duration, and dates back prior to her marriage a few months ago. Mrs. John A. Gaillard, of Chicago, a sister to Mrs. Munger, is very ill at the home of her uncle, N. E. Pugh.

Seventy-two foreigners have been naturalized in Logan county since the election of 1888, and there will be others before the election next week.

The capital stock of the Lincoln Cork Collar company ($25,000) has all been subscribed, and it is expected to have the plant in full operation by Jan. 1. About 25 men will be employed, and the number increased as the season requires. The subscribers are: W. H. Hagebusch, Frank Frier, Frank Hoblit, W. H. Hungerford, James T. Hoblit, A. C. Boyd, D. H. Harris and James I. Jones.

Two Police Forces.
Blue Mound is now well supplied with police forces, as it has on hand two complete sets of that useful and ornamental article. In Blue Mound, however, a "force" consists of one entire man. The way the "surplus" of forces came to accumulate has been mentioned here in part already. A. M. Warren, who was the force, was relieved of duty by the village board, which appointed another officer. Mr. Warren, however, would not be relieved, claiming that he was appointed for a year and was going to stick. And he is sticking, though the new force has been sworn in and gone to work.

"Little Lord Fauntleroy."
"Little Lord Fauntleroy" is scheduled for to-morrow night at the Grand Opera House. No play of recent years has won so general and so continued commendation from all kinds, classes and conditions of men, and the fact that the company to whom its representation is entrusted is sent out by T. H. French, and is under his own immediate management, is guarantee sufficient that there will be nothing lacking to the end of giving a perfect performance. The character of the little lord is played by two little eight-year-old children, who alternate the role, and two more clever or more capable children do not live.

Want the Girls.
The high school debating society will have a meeting to-night to discuss the adoption of a new constitution. The important change to be considered is admitting girls to membership. The members want to enlarge the society, and there isn't any one else much to take in but the girls. The arrangement, however, suits the boys very well and they are about all in favor of admitting the fair sex to an equal part in the affairs of the society.

County Court.
William A. Martin was adjudged insane in the county court yesterday, the complaint having been filed by his brother. The jury found that he was dangerous, and he will be sent to the asylum soon.

The naturalization mill commenced to grind yesterday afternoon and three men were given final papers and became American citizens. They were Leonard Clehr, Adam Stabitz and William Wix.

Want an Elevator.
Peter Peri, Darfee & Bros., and others who have been using the rear entrance of their places of business, opening into the alley between Peri's and the Presbyterian church, are thinking they will have to put in an elevator now to get in that way. The excavation for the paving has left their door sills down three to four feet in the air. Of course the pavement will fill in some of that, but still a horse would have to be as lively as a goat to get in that way.

Snow.
The first snow of the season came along yesterday, and now the superstitious are sure we shall have a snowy winter, because yesterday was the 23rd of the month. The ground was not covered, by any means, but there was quite a flurry visible for several minutes.

Cost Money.
A few days ago a boy about 7 years old put on a new overcoat and wore it to the Wood Street school. He forgot it at noon, and when he went back for the coat it was gone. Some child about the boy's own age captured the coat.

Smith, alternate for the world's fair commissioner and president of the Illinois National bank of that city, and Henry M. Phindell, proprietor of the Peoria Herald, and formerly treasurer of Springfield.

Having Lots of Fun.
The police found a stranger on Lincoln square last night so drunk he could hardly talk. Between his hicoughs and in reply to questions, he imparted the information that he was a Platt county democrat, had been drunk in Decatur for two days on James Millikin's money and was going to have lots more of fun out of it.

Prohibition Rally To-Night.

OF THE REVIEW.

The manufacturers of "TARPUR" Baking Powder in making their bow to the public desire to frankly state a few important facts:

First--This powder has been adopted and endorsed by the Wholesale Grocers' National association as the best pure cream of tartar Baking Powder made.

Second--We make no extravagant claims or assertions; the quality of the powder is expressed by the name.

Third--We have no words of condemnation for other powders; there are some powders in the market which are very good, there are far more that are poisonous; we know ours to be pure and of the highest class.

Fourth--Realizing that results alone can prove the merit of any article, we believe that "TARPUR" Baking Powder, which is an advancement in modern discovery and science, will furnish results for the household never before accomplished, thus proving helpful to the health and "popular with the ladies." We respectfully request for this powder a careful trial and are confident that it will obtain precedence over all others in the homes of the people.

A BEAUTIFUL WEDDING.
The Marriage of Miss Frances B. Ehrman and H. B. Marshall.
The wedding of Miss Frances B. Ehrman and H. B. Marshall, solemnized last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Ehrman, at 359 Prairie avenue, was a beautiful one. There were several unique ideas about it that added much to the charming effect. About 90 guests were present at 5 in the afternoon, the hour set for the ceremony. The opera house orchestra was stationed in the east parlor. When it began playing with full round tones the beautiful wedding march of Mendelssohn, the bridal party descended the stairway, and entered the north parlor from the south door.
First came the little flower girls, Ehrman Cloyd, Bertie Lou Anderson and Lucy Cloyd. They were dressed in costumes almost alike, made of cream cashmere and satin silk. They strewed in the pathway quantities of pure white and rich cream colored chrysanthemums. After the flower girls came the ushers B. H. Cloyd and F. W. Anderson, who preceded the bride and groom, who were followed by C. P. Crasmer, of Chicago, and Miss Nell Schroeder, Miss Myrtle Greene and Miss Bessie Voorhies.
In the northwest corner of the parlor was suspended a large wishbone made of smilax and white chrysanthemums. The decorations of the rooms were largely white and yellow chrysanthemums and smilax. Above the door by which the bridal party entered was suspended two "pipes of peace" made of these flowers.
The bride and groom paused under the wish bone, facing the company, with best man at the right of the groom and the bridesmaids at the left of the bride. The group made a pretty picture. The bride was beautiful in her rich, closely fitting gown of cream tulle and French silk, garnished with duchess lace and Persian trimming. The gown was made with a train, high neck and long sleeves. She wore a veil. Her ornaments were diamonds and in her hand she carried a magnificent bouquet of bridal roses. Miss Schroeder wore a gown of cream china silk, Miss Greene a white crepe, with pink roses, and Miss Voorhies a white Paris muslin.
The ceremony was performed by the father of the groom, Rev. Joseph H. Marshall, of Indianapolis, Ia., assisted by Rev. W. H. Penhallegon. Mr. Marshall is a tall, handsome man, with a courtly air, and pronounced the solemn words of the short Presbyterian marriage ceremony with a dignity that made a deep impression on the minds of the assembled friends.
At the conclusion congratulations and good wishes were said. They were hearty and sincere. The bride is one of Decatur's most accomplished and charming daughters. She had lived here all her life and many have had an opportunity of becoming acquainted with the graceful characteristics of both her mind and person.
The wedding dinner was served at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Cloyd, on the same lawn as the Ehrman residence. Carpets were laid from one house to another, and the guests were hung in double rows of brilliant Chinese lanterns, which illuminated the passage way. The entire company was seated at many small tables, on which the elaborate supper was served by nimble colored servants.
The guests present from out of the city were the groom's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Marshall, Indianapolis, Ia., Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Spencer, Minneapolis, Minn., and Miss Annie Dillon, Omaha, Neb.
Mr. and Mrs. Marshall left on the 9:07 train for an extensive tour through the west. The bride's traveling costume was a handsome dark green cloth, with black satin plaid and bonnet to match. They will visit Kansas City, Denver, Santa Fe, and other cities in the west. Mr. Marshall is connected with the wholesale boot and shoe house of C. M. Henderson & Co., Chicago, and his leave of absence expires on the 20th of November. They will be back there by that time and will board at Hyde Park.

Peter Smith appeared before Justice Hammer yesterday and pleaded guilty to two charges on which he had been arrested. They were both on state warrants, one charging him with vagrancy and the other with assault on his mother, and had been sworn out by his step-father, Edward Frost, who keeps the Franklin house. On the vagrancy charge Justice Hammer gave him 60 days in the county jail and a fine of $2 and costs, and on the assault charge a fine of $10 and costs. The victim who is popularly known as "Dutch Peter" went to jail, and will remain sequestered there for the space of two months.

Not Heard From.
M. G. Patterson had not arrived in Decatur last night. His friends here are beginning to wonder where he is. Word was received yesterday by L. A. Buckingham from the Masonic board of relief at Denver, that a ticket had been purchased for him from Denver to Decatur and given to him with $8 in money. It was supposed that he had left Denver on a train that would make him due to arrive here two days ago. Some anxiety is felt about him. The Masonic board at Denver will be asked by telegram to-day for information about Mr. Patterson.

Bloomington is one of the principal supply depots for flowers, not only in the state but in the west, and during every week in the year cut flowers are shipped from here to St. Louis, Kansas City and Chicago. The floral industry gives employment to about 100 men here, most of whom are heads of families.

A Decatur dealer has five carloads of hard coal that he doesn't know what to do with. It burns all right and gives just as much heat, apparently, but has been soaked in water, all that bright, shiny appearance has gone. That settles it with the customers. They won't have it as a gift.
The Jingle Concert company since their return from the Pacific coast seem to be more popular than ever. At Arcola they had the largest reserved seat sale ever known in that town. These remarkable vocalists will appear at the Grand in new songs and a substantial change of program next Monday night.
For sometime there has been talk of some new arrangement of the wires in our streets. There is a great tangle of them that not only looks ill, but is a constant danger to life and property. A neighboring city has about concluded to have the wires as much as possible on certain main streets leading in each direction. The telegraph and telephone wires will be on one side, the electric light and other high current wires will be on the other. This arrangement will be more slightly and much less dangerous.
There is a workman at the jewelry store of Curtis & Bro. who is a neat hand with a penknife and a paint brush, and he used the talent yesterday to work a joke on the senior member of the firm. A pine stick was whittled into the shape of a pencil and a little black tip painted on the sharp end, a small black spot on the other end, and it was left on the desk of Mr. Curtis. Soon after that he came into the room, sat down at his desk and commenced business by going to work with the imitation pencil, which of course made no mark. When the laugh went around, Mr. Curtis saw the joke.

Inquiry was made at Illinois Central office with reference to the large increase of operating expenses during the three months ended Sept. 30, 1890, as compared with the same period last year. An officer of the company said that a large portion of this increase is due to the extraordinary work on the road and machinery department, which was under way, but not completed at the end of the last fiscal year.

"The Wife."
The presentation of the above play at the Grand Opera house last night was a very pleasing production of a fine comedy. The play is one of the successes of the New York Lyceum theatre, and was produced by one of the Lyceum companies. It is a comedy of society life in Newport and Washington, and the characters are politicians and society people. The company was a well selected one, the individuals being well adapted to their parts. W. A. Sands as Major Homer Q. Putnam won considerable favor, and Percy West gave an excellent representation of Matthew Calver, the unscrupulous politician. The love affair of the young folks, Jack Dexter and Kittie Ives, played by Ernest Walcott and Miss Jeannette Lowrie won the hearts of the audience. The attendance was good, though still not as large as the company deserved, for it was a first-class play rendered by a first class company. Three of the boxes were occupied. Mr. Frohman has arranged to bring the "Clarity Ball" here the latter part of November, and it should be greeted by a large audience as all of the Frohman attains may be depended on to be of the highest character.

Four Years on Crutches.
For fifteen years I was afflicted with rheumatism, four years which I was compelled to go on crutches. Words are inadequate to express the misery I endured during that time. During these fifteen years of existence (it was not living), I tried every known remedy without receiving any benefit. I finally began on Swift's Specific (S. S. S.), which from the first gave me relief, and today I am enjoying the best of health, and am a well man. I candidly believe that S. S. S. is the best blood purifier on the market to-day.
